

PRINCESS ROSE MARY AND KING RUBIN

Princess Rose Mary is both a princess and a warrior. With her delicate but deadly sword and her regal crown, this princess knows how to charm the hearts of her kingdom and protect it from chaos. Elegant and beautiful, this princess rules! The sword, mirror and crown are made of EVA foam and the skirt and cape are finely detailed, high quality textiles that will look good at a coronation or a palace ball.

Every king needs a crown and this one is just the crown for every boy who wants to be king. Bejeweled and made of gold, this crown will sit well on your head and let everyone know who is actually the real King! Made of EVA foam and one size fits all.

The Ad Lib Story

Swords, real swords, are at the center of how Ad Lib Toys came to be. Three of the founders of Ad Lib Toys are fencing coaches and we all share a passion for sword fighting. Fortunately, we knew the owner of Liontouch Toys and we loved the toys that they made as they appealed to the kid inside each of us. Who hasn't picked up a stick in the back yard and challenged a friend to a duel? This spirit of adventure and imagination and our love for fencing is what made us start Ad Lib Toys. We want every child to be able to challenge their friends to a duel and to do so in style and grace. In our opinion Liontouch toys are the best foam swords and the capes, shields and crowns allow kids to "ad lib" and play actively, imaginatively and safely.

Product Safety

At Ad Lib Toys, active, fun, imaginative and safe toys are our highest priority. As parents ourselves, we know how important it is that our kids be safe and have fun. That's why we partnered with Liontouch Toys to distribute their toys in the USA. When you purchase a Liontouch toy, you can be sure that it fully complies with the current safety regulations in both the USA and EU. All Liontouch toys carry the CE symbol which is your guarantee that our products comply with the European Toy Directive. They have been submitted to and passed the ASTM testing standards for the USA as well as the testing requirements from the Consumer Product Safety Improvement Act of 2011. These tests include flammability, sharp edge and point tests, and lead and phthalate content. Liontouch makes every effort to create high quality, safe and amazing toys for children.

QUEEN ROSA

Pink capes, delicate crowns and magic wands combine to give any young queen all the trappings of royalty and grace. Like a true Fairy Queen, this one also has her sword and shield and fairy wand close by to help defend the realm with magic and might. The sword and shield are made of high density EVA foam and decorated with rubies, diamonds and gold. The crown is soft foam shaped into a delicate style and the cape is silky soft and trimmed with gold lace. The wand, well, it's rumoured to be made of unicorn hair, a shooting star and moonbeams. Of course, only the Fairy Queen knows for sure.

NOBLE KNIGHT

Crashing swords, clanking armour and royal capes abound in the Noble Knight collection. Whether it is the traditional Maltese Knight or the rampant lion that catches your young knights fancy, Ad Lib Toys has the armour to outfit your knight. The helmets are one size fits all and the swords and shields are durable EVA layered foam. The hand straps on the shield are attached by rivets for extra strength and the swords are soft, safe and strong. Capes are finished along all edges and lend an air of elegance and style to the knights appearance.
